

SCOTTISH LAND COMMISSION
COIMISEAN FEARAINN NA H-ALBA

Mediation in the Tenant Farming Sector
Scottish Natural Heritage, Battleby, Redgorton, Perth PH1 3EW
Wednesday, 25th March 2020

Have you ever wanted to be a fly on the wall at an agricultural landlord and tenant mediation? The Scottish Land Commission and the Agricultural Law Association, in association with Scottish Mediation, invite you to a unique training event: a mediation to try to resolve a waygoing from an agricultural holding.

Pamela Lyall, mediator, and Lindsay Burley, mediator, Eskhill and Co, have been instructed as mediators and will work with the landlord and the tenant to try to reach a mutually acceptable outcome. Robin Burley, Eskhill and Co, will host the mock mediation and enable delegates to ask questions as the process unfolds. The programme comprises:-

09.30 - 10.00 - Registration

10.00 - 11.00 - Welcome and Introduction to Mediation in an Agricultural Law Context

Jon Robertson, Partner, Turcan Connell

Lessons Learned from Scottish Land Commission's Pilot Mediations

Bob McIntosh, Tenant Farming Commissioner

Introduction to the Mediation Process and today's Mock Mediation

Robin Burley, Partner, Eskhill & Co

11.00 - 11.15 - Coffee

11.15 - 13.00 - Mock Mediation

Landlord's representative - David Johnstone, Scottish Land & Estates;
Landlord's solicitor – Heather Bruce, Turcan Connell; and Landlord's land agent - Gordon Kerr, Savills.

General Partner of Tenant - Christopher Nicholson, STFA;
Tenant's solicitor – Hamish Lean, Shepherd+ Wedderburn; and Tenant's land agent – Tom Oates, youngsRPS.

Papers prepared by Jamie Whittle, R & R Urquhart

13.00 - 14.00 - Lunch

14.00 - 15.30 - Mock Mediation Continued

15.30 - 15.45 - Coffee

15.45 - 16.30 - Summary of Mediation Outcomes and Concluding Remarks

Sir Crispin Agnew of Lochnaw, Bt, QC

Please note that photographs and film footage will be taken throughout this event. These will be used by the Scottish Land Commission and/or partner organisations in our publications, on our website and in social media or in any third party publication. Please contact the event organiser if you have any concerns or if you wish to be exempted from this activity.

SCOTTISH LAND COMMISSION
COIMISEAN FEARAINN NA H-ALBA

Materials will be provided at registration on the day. The charge per person including lunch is £30 plus VAT.

Name(s):
Firm or company name:
Address:
DX/Postcode:
Email:
Dietary Requirements
Signature:

I enclose/have sent by BACS (delete as appropriate) £36 (including VAT) in respect of each person attending (total £.....)

Please send this form (with your cheque if appropriate made out to “The Agricultural Law Association”) to:

Agricultural Law Association
PO Box 10489
Oakham
LE15 0GL

e-mail: enquiries@ala.org.uk

Bank details for payment by BACS:-

Account No: 51283383
Sort Code: 40-46-39
Account Name: Agricultural Law Association
Bank: HSBC Bank plc

The Agricultural Law Association is VAT registered and is responsible for the organisation of this event. A VAT invoice will be provided by the ALA following receipt of your payment.